1998 FERMILAB
PREPRINTS AND
TECHNICAL REPORTS
AVAILABLE ON CD

You may now order from the Fermilab Publications Office a CD-ROM containing the complete collection of 1998 Fermilab preprints, conference papers and technical reports. The collection contains 467 full-text documents in Portable Document Format (PDF). Each CD comes complete with online instructions, an Adobe Acrobat Reader and a browser-readable index. For your convenience, a text-only index and a printed index are also included. CDs are written according to ISO-9660 and will run on most platforms.

This collection will allow you to read and print Fermilab scientific and technical reports from your personal computer without Internet access making reading the collection from home faster and more convenient.

To order, please complete the order blank on the back page and send it to MS 107 along with payment. The CD costs $10. We cannot accept credit card orders, so please enclose a check, money order or bank draft made payable to Fermilab. We can also charge back to a budget code or you may stop by the office to place your order if you wish to pay in cash. Your order will be filled the week it is received and sent to you by interoffice mail. If you have questions, you may contact the Publications Office at x3278 or send e-mail to techpubs@fnal.gov.

NEW BOOKS MAILING LIST

We have set up an electronic mailing list that provides subscribers with weekly announcements of the new books available in the Fermilab Library. The books are listed by title, author, and Fermilab Library call number. New library books remain on the new books cart (located in front of the circulation desk on WH3X) for two weeks, so we also list the date available for check-out.

To subscribe to the new books announcement mailing list:

- ◆ Send e-mail to mailserv@fnal.gov
- ◆ In the body of the e-mail message type: subscribe new-books your e-mail address (Example: subscribe new-books somebody@fnal.gov). Do not include any other text in the body of your message.
- ◆ Do not type anything in the subject line or cc: line or in the Attachments or Addressing areas. Leave those areas blank. If prompted to include a subject, delete any text that may have been put there automatically, such as (no subject), and then send the message.

To unsubscribe to the new books announcement mailing list:

- ◆ Send e-mail to mailserv@fnal.gov
- ◆ In the body of the e-mail message type: unsubscribe new-books your e-mail address. (Example: unsubscribe new-books somebody@fnal.gov). Do not include any other text.
- ◆ Do not type anything in the subject line or cc: line or in the Attachments or Addressing areas. Leave those areas blank. If prompted to include a subject, delete any text that may have been put there automatically, such as (no subject), and then send the message.

EXERCISE YOUR RESOURCES

The Information Resources Department invites you to stop by the Library (WH3X) on Thursday, April 15 to help us celebrate International Special Librarians Day. The theme for our celebration is "Exercise Your Resources." Our focus is on helping you strengthen your position through access to timely, pertinent information. The Library is open from 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Throughout the day we will be happy to register you so you can check out materials, provide tours of our information center, demonstrate our products, tools and services, and give you tips on how you can put muscle into your web searches. Whether you are an old friend or a new Library customer, stop by for refreshments and talk to us about how we can help you.

DOW JONES ACCESS TO BUSINESS INFORMATION

The Fermilab Library has access to Dow Jones Interactive (DJI) on a pay-as-you-search basis. Dow Jones Interactive is an extensive online archive with a business focus. Searches of Dow Jones are by appointment, and can typically be done the day of your request. The cost of the searches is charged to your budget code. Contact the Library Administrator (sarat@fnal.gov) or the Systems Librarian (beth@fnal.gov) for a search. Some of DJI's features include:

- ◆ Company & Industry Center: Find full-text business reports, market research reports, company screening and investment analysts reports on companies and industries. All of the Dun&Bradstreet company reports are available via this center!
- ◆ Business Newsstand: Browse current and most recent back issues of the world's leading newspapers and selected business magazines, read the day's top news gathered by Dow Jones editors and search for specific news items in a 90-day archive of real-time, continuously updated newswires.
- ◆ Dow Jones Publications Library: Search for articles on any subject in the full text of 6,000 leading business newspapers, magazines, trade journals and newsletters and television and radio transcripts.
- ◆ Historical Market Data Center: Look up detailed pricing and dividend histories for worldwide securities, including stocks, mutual funds, corporate bonds, government securities, market indexes and options. You can also get historical exchange rate reports comparing the rate of one currency to another or others.

Dow Jones Interactive also provides links to these other Dow Jones products:

- ◆ The Wall Street Journal Interactive Edition
- ◆ Dow Jones Web Center: Search the public Web for relevant and timely business news and information. Dow Jones editors identify and select only the top news and business Web sites (over 1,200) for inclusion, and update each site one to four times daily.
